

The little old town that never was, but is today!

Step inside our historic buildings and hear the stories of the people who moved here, built our towns and homesteaded the prairies of North Dakota. The village offers visitors a feel for the atmosphere of the Missouri River Valley during that time. Our buildings were moved to this site by the Missouri Valley Historical Society for preservation.

2016 PUBLIC TOURS

Guided Tour of Historic Buildings

1:00 pm Saturdays May thru- Sept.
Adults: $6. Students $3. 5yr & under free with family. MVHS Members Free
Special Tours: Larry 701-258-5128
Photography Sessions: $55.00. 220-6311

Browse Buckstop Junction's Vintage Gift Shoppe for North Dakota collectables or a copy of "Old Walls Do Tell Tales, the Pioneer Stories of Buckstop Junction".

2017: Buckstop Junction Celebrates 25 years!

The Bethel Church will celebrate 100 years at our annual Corn Feed & Flea Market on August 21, 2016. This church was moved to Buckstop Junction from near Coleharbor, ND in 1994.

This photo is a portion of the map of Bismarck in 1873 located at the Lewis Hotel. Find places that you know!

The Lewis Hotel, left, was moved to Buckstop Junction from Tappen, ND in 1996. The Foley house in the background was built in Bismarck by James Foley, author of the North Dakota Hymn.

2016 Buckstop Junction Events

Junk'n at the Junction: Saturday, June 25
Corn Feed & Flea Market: Sunday August 21
Kid's Halloween at the Vintage Shoppe: Saturday, October 8
HAY RIDE & SANTA: Saturday, December 3

Missouri Valley Historical Society, Buckstop Junction
P O Box 941, Bismarck, ND 58502-0941
701-250-8575 www.BuckstopJunction.org

Buckstop Junction is on East Main Avenue; just east of Bismarck Expressway, Bismarck, North Dakota. Please call for information, to schedule a tour, book your event or to volunteer. The Missouri Valley Historical Society (MVHS) is a 501(C) 3 non-profit organization. Proceeds are used to support Buckstop Junction. We are staffed by Volunteers and welcome your help!